

2019 Stewart Pinot Noir

Harvest Dates: October 5th – October 9th

Alc: 13.6%

Production: 420 cases

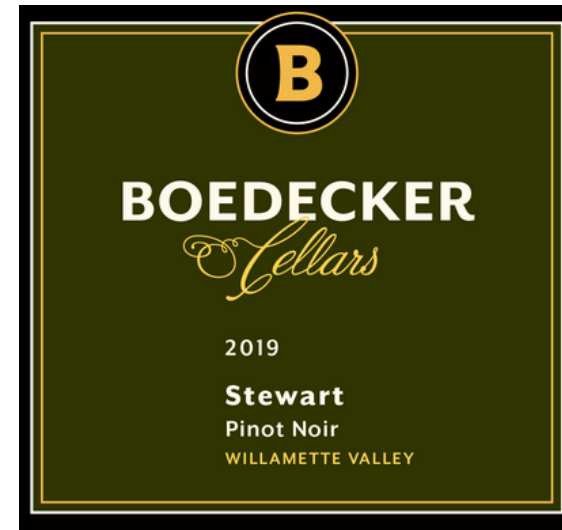

The makeup

Primarily Dijon 114 and 777 from Hirschy Vineyard, Pommard from Cherry Grove Vineyard and Dijon 115 from Shea Vineyard.

Spontaneous ferments from native primary yeast, naturally occurring malolactic bacteria, 18 month élevage, lees stirred, minimal effective SO₂.

BOEDECKER
Cellars

503-224-5778 | 2621 NW 30th Avenue Portland,
OR 97214

Tasting Notes

“Creamy, dense and fruit-driven with plenty of juicy strawberries, raspberries, cherries and a touch of oak spices on the nose. Medium-bodied with a mellow, delicious mid-palate with sliced strawberry character and a long, lively finish.” 92 pt JamesSuckling.com

Winemakers: Stewart Boedecker &
Athena Pappas

