FRANÇOIS
Carillon 1611
PULIGNY-MONTRACHET

SAINT-AUBIN
PREMIER CRU MURGERS DES DENTS DE CHIENS

ABOUT THE WINERY

The Carillon family Domaine dates back to the 16th century. Today, François Carillon farms almost 20 acres of vineyards, located principally in Puligny-Montrachet.

THE WINE

The estate acquired this plot in 2013 which overlooks the Grands Crus of Puligny, and is just opposite the Champs Gains. The name Murgers des Dents de Chiens refers to the vineyard's sharp and pointy pebbles which look like dog teeth. The vinification is done in the traditional Burgundian style, with fermentation taking place in small oak casks. Ripe and richer than the Pitangerets, this wine offers a very good depth.
