

DOMAINE DIDIER DAGUENEAU

LES JARDINS DE BABYLONE DEMI-SEC, VIN DE FRANCE

Property of Didier Dagueneau, the largest owner in the Pouilly Fumé appellation and one of the greatest winegrowers that France has known. The wines of this domain are known for their liveliness and here the citrus fruits (lemon, grapefruit) slice the gluttony brought by the quince.

Brand:	Domaine Didier Dagueneau
Region:	Southwest
Country:	France
Appellation:	Vin de France
Cuvee:	Les Jardins de Babylone
Varietal:	Petit Manseng and Gros Manseng
Class:	Dessert Wine
Alcohol:	14.0%
Size:	750ml
Winemaking Process:	Barrel Aged, Barrel Fermented, Dry Farmed, Estate grown grapes, Hand harvested, Indigenous yeast fermented

TASTING NOTES: The nose reveals notes of candied fruit, pear, mango, pineapple, quince jelly, dried flowers and sweet spices. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied and generous and yet retains its airy character. The finish has a great length and intense harmony.

