

DOMAINE DIDIER DAGUENEAU

MEMENTO MORI

This wine is an homage to the late Didier Dagueneau, 10 years after his passing. A packed wine that deserves time to do justice to the life it honors.

Brand:	Domaine Didier Dagueneau
Region:	Loire
Country:	France
Appellation:	Pouilly Fume
Varietal:	Sauvignon Blanc
Class:	White
Alcohol:	13.0%
Size:	750ml
Vineyard:	A meticulous selection from the oldest vines planted in Silex on the high slopes of Saint Andelain.
Soil:	Silex (clay and flint)
Viticulture:	Farmed biodynamically. The domaine employs twice the number of employees than a conventional winery would use for the same acreage. The goal is to produce, on the average, 75% of the yields common to neighboring wineries.
Aging:	Barrel fermented. Aged mostly in 450 and 600 liter barrels, as well as some of Dagueneau's famous cigar barrels. Designed by the late Didier, these barrels are 350 liters and aggressively elongated.

