PROPRIÉTAIRES-RÉCOLTANTS À SAINT-AUBIN - CÔTE-D'OR - FRANCE

PULIGNY-MONTRACHET LES AUBUES

As I've written before, one of my favorite estates in the Côte de Beaune is Domaine Jean-Claude Bachelet, where brothers Jean-Claude and Benoît have been taking the wines to new heights in recent years. Serious viticulture, carefully chosen harvest dates, long press cycles and extended élevage in wood on the lees, followed by bottling under high-quality natural cork, are the order of the day. Maturing vineyards, more refined cooperage choices and a spacious new winery in the hamlet of Gamay are surely just a few of the small details that together account for the qualitative progress that's been made over the last decade. They harvested late in 2021, daring to retain plenty of lees, and matured the wines for the usual 24 months in barrel, delivering a lovely range that evokes the white Burgundies of yesteryear, made for patient wine lovers with cold cellars.

"Aromas of flowers, white peach, toasted nuts and citrus zest introduce the 2021 Puligny-Montrachet Les Aubues, a medium to full-bodied, satiny and pure wine that's taut but suave, with racy acids and good structure. This parcel delivered normal yields despite the frost and remains very classic in profile."
