

viña las perdices

VIOGNIER

Viña Las Perdices is located at the foot of the Andes Mountains, in Agrelo, Luján de Cuyo, at 1,030 m.a.s.l. Since the seventies the family fell in love with these lands and took as a challenge the cultivation and creation of high quality wines.

Brand:	Viña Las Perdices
Region:	Agrelo, Luján de Cuyo. 1030 meters above sea level
Varietal:	100% Viognier
Color:	White
Alcohol:	14.0%
Size:	750ml
Country:	Argentina
Winemaking Process:	Obtention of the juice by pneumatic pressing. Must cooled at 4°C, decantation of lees, must transfer and subsequent addition of selected yeasts. Controlled alcoholic fermentation between 14-16 °C for 20 days.
Temperature:	10-12°C (50 – 54°F)
Food pairing:	Ideal combination with spicy dishes, fish and Asian food, especially sushi.

TASTING NOTES: Greenish yellow color. Peach, apricot and floral aromas. Complex and unctuous palate with a long finish, highlighting the fruity notes.