

Château La Commanderie Pomerol

2017 VICTORY

Here stands the victorious soldier, sword lowered to signify full and complete victory. Because, thanks to the unfailing protection of its knight, La Commanderie was spared from the frost that year. Marked by the combination of red and black fruits, the tannins of this vintage are very welcoming and fresh, producing a surprising result which offers promising aging potential.

Country: France

Region: Bordeaux

Appellation: Pomerol

Color: Red

Grape varieties: Merlot, Cabernet Franc

Aging potential: The wines of Château La Commanderie can be stored for at least 15 years.

Operating temperature: The ideal serving temperature for Château La Commanderie wines is between 15 and 17°C.

Serving: Château La Commanderie recommends traditional Bordeaux glasses, which are more tapered and have a sufficiently wide opening to ensure good oxygenation.

Tasting notes: "This starts well, with firm, summery red fruits, although they're a touch underripe. It has a nice perky form, for drinking in the medium term."
