

HOMMAGE À WILLIAM DEUTZ, LA CÔTE GLACIÈRE

The ultimate expression of the Aÿ terroir, the Blanc de Noirs single vineyard champagnes celebrate the vision of Champagne Deutz's founder. La Côte Glacière, a south-facing plot of vines adjacent to the Deutz premises, sits on a spectacular 25% slope. Its old vines produce wines with a sunny energy - a majestic expression of the complexity of the great Pinot Noirs from Aÿ, in their opulence and elegance.

Blend:

100% Pinot Noir, "La Côte Glacière"
Plot (1.9 hectares), Aÿ Grand Cru.

Ageing in our cellars: 6 years

Tasting notes

La Côte Glacière 2018

Appearance

Bright and crystal clear with a lovely pale gold hue.

Nose

Lovely aromatic power.

Concentrated core of black fruits - blackberry and blackcurrant - and notes of bitter chocolate, evoking the unmistakable characteristics of the Pinot Noir grape in its radiant elegance.

Palate

Concentration, richness and freshness.

Red fruits that evolve to take on more stewed, jammy notes.

Long, lingering finish with a signature iodised note.

